Helping Your Students Speak Well: Sing Gilbert & Sullivan

Gilbert & Sullivan wrote clever, engaging, lyrics in modern opera. This song poses a very difficult task indeed. One that most students have never faced. Give them a chance. Have some fun with this. Hand out the lyrics. Please view the live version on YouTube. Then play the music only version and have them sing along.

I Am the Very Model of a Modern Major-General
Gilbert and Sullivan from the Pirates of Penzance
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Major-General%27s_Song

I am the very model of a modern Major-General,
I've information vegetable, animal, and mineral,
I know the kings of England, and I quote the fights historical
From Marathon to Waterloo, in order categorical;
I'm very well acquainted, too, with matters mathematical,
I understand equations, both the simple and quadratical,
About binomial theorem I'm teeming with a lot o' news, (bothered for a rhyme)
With many cheerful facts about the square of the hypotenuse.

I'm very good at integral and differential calculus;
I know the scientific names of beings animalculous:
In short, in matters vegetable, animal, and mineral,
I am the very model of a modern Major-General.

I know our mythic history, King Arthur's and Sir Caradoc's;
I answer hard acrostics, I've a pretty taste for paradox,
I quote in elegiacs all the crimes of Heliogabalus,
In conics I can floor peculiarities parabolous;
I can tell undoubted Raphael's from Gerard Dows and Zoffanies,
I know the croaking chorus from The Frogs of Aristophanes!
Then I can hum a fugue of which I've heard the music's din afore, (bothered for a rhyme)
And whistle all the airs from that infernal nonsense Pinafore.

Then I can write a washing bill in Babylonic cuneiform,
And tell you ev'ry detail of Caractacus's uniform:
In short, in matters vegetable, animal, and mineral,
I am the very model of a modern Major-General.

In fact, when I know what is meant by "mamelon" and "ravelin",
When I can tell at sight a Mauser rifle from a javelin,
When such affairs as sorties and surprises I'm more wary at,
And when I know precisely what is meant by "commissariat",
When I have learnt what progress has been made in modern gunnery,
When I know more of tactics than a novice in a nunnery –
In short, when I've a smattering of elemental strategy – (bothered for a rhyme)
You'll say a better Major-General has never sat a gee.

For my military knowledge, though I'm plucky and adventury,
Has only been brought down to the beginning of the century;
But still, in matters vegetable, animal, and mineral,
I am the very model of a modern Major-General.

Definitions (a few)
animalculous: Small animal.
Heliogabalus: A Roman emperor from 218 to 222
Gerrit Dou: A Dutch Golden Age painter
Johan Zoffany: A German neoclassical painter
Aristophanes: A comic playwright of ancient Athens
Caratacus: A first-century British chieftain of the Catuvellauni tribe
Mamelon: French name for a fort at Gordon's Hill
Ravelin: A triangular fortification or detached outwork, located in front of the innerworks of a fortress Gee: A command to horse and “gee” was a nickname for a horse in Gilbert's time. So the Major-General has never ridden a horse.
